ol. X. Numb. 9.

THE OBSERVATOR.

Laws for securing the Hanover Succession and our Libertys, are very good Fences, but such may be broke down by our fatal Divisions, if seconded by a French Invasion and a Rebellion, according to the Bavarian Minister's Letter from Versailles. A T——y Scheme of Votes and Bills for the Examiner's Whig one. Reflections on his Inconsistencies and mischievous Design.

From Saturday, January 27. to Wednesday, January 31. 1711.

Countrym. I Am sorry to find that so many of our Circumstances resemble those of the Romans, which did not only precede, but portend the Fall of their State, Master: yet there are several things wherein we have very much the advantage of 'em; which if duly improv'd, may, by the Blessing of God, avert the bad Omens which seem to threaten us.

Obs. What's that, Roger? I am glad to hear that you don't despair of the publick Welfare; for no honest Man should ever let himself be so far overrun with melancholy Apprehensions, as to discourage him from doing his endeavours to promote the Welfare of his Country.

Countrym. The first is, Master, that our Constitution is as well secur'd as it can be by Law; our Magna Charta and Declaration of Rights are such Barriers against Arbitrary Power, that the Men of arbitrary Principles and restless Practices dare not openly attack them, tho they do it by Side-winds. The second is, that our Succession is settled by Law on such a Protestant Family as is capable of maintaining it, and that Popish Successors are perpetually excluded, notwithstanding the lately reviv'd Principles of a Divine Indefeasible Hereditary Right. The third is, that by Act of Parliament we are allow'd to withdraw our Allegiance from any King or Queen that is a Papist, turns Papist, or marries a Papist; notwithstanding the ridiculous Cant of Unlimited Passive Obedience. The fourth is, that her Majesty has often and again promis'd to maintain the Protestant Succession as by Law establish'd: And the fifth is, that 'tis the Interest of our Allies as well as our selves to make use of their utmost Efforts to secure the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover.

Obs. It must be own'd, Roger, that these are very great Securities, and such as our Enemies cannot attack in a Parliamentary way; yet I cannot flatter my self so far as to think them Insensible: for they may all be subverted by Revolution and Surprize, especially if the French King should take the D. of Berwick's Advice, and send over the Pretender with 20000 Men, to join those among us who formerly contriv'd Assassination and Insurrection-Plots; especially while their Courage is so much rais'd by the intestine Factions and Divisions that are industriously encourag'd and fomented by the Examiner and his Faction, who every day libel the Revolution-Party, and charge them with such Designs against the Constitution in Church and State, as no Man who has not bid defiance to common Sense as well as Charity, can so much as suppose did enter into their thoughts. There cannot be no greater proof of this, than the malicious and ridiculous Scheme of Votes, which he supposes the Whigs would propose were they again in Power, in his Paper of the 25*th* instant.

Countrym. I never saw any thing in my life, Master, that savour'd more of impotent and groundless Malice, than that Scheme of Votes: It argues the Party to be miserably put to it, when they are forc'd to have recourse to such pitiful shifts. If I remember right, Master, a certain Person whose Credit the Party do now so much endeavour to support, was sent to the T——r in 1696. for having a hand in contriving such Calumnies: It appears still upon Record; but I leave it to the Examiner and his Friends, to guess where and what it is, I make no question they remember it.

Obs. 'Twere easy to make reprisals upon that audacious Incendiary, Roger, and with a much better foundation. No body can say we exceed the bounds of Charity, if we suppose there are some of the Examiner's Applauders, who if they durst attempt, would order,

1. A Bill to make the Sacrament of the Supper a Popish Sacrifice, and that L—ley, D—well, and H—ks should draw it up.

2. A Petition of S——l, H——ns, W——n, D——m——, R——, S— J—, P——n, G——d, C——s—, M——l——, K——th, M——r, H——e, &c. in behalf of themselves and many hundred of their Disciples, that a Bill may be brought in to qualify P——sts and Ja——ites to abjure the Pretender tho they don't forget him, to serve as Co——ls, P——t-Men, and E——ve L——s, or in any other Post, by which they may subvert the Constitution, and make way for a P——ish Religion and F—ch Government; and that Mr. C——l do prepare and bring it in.

4. That all the Youth of the Nation be committed to the Care of S——l, T——p, and such-like C——y-Men, to teach 'em to blacken the Revolution, and the Means by which 'twas effected, to damn K. William's Memory, and his curs'd Legacy of the Hanover Succession; to say that he ought to have been Dewitted, and to drink a Health to Sorrel for breaking his neck.

4. Another impowering the H—ghS—g C——y to preach us again into Slavery, and that they shall have the sole Authority to determine the Succession of the Crown and the Extent of the Prerogative.

5. Another to take away the Jurisdiction of the Revolution-Bishops, and to hasten the Death of the Lord Archbishop of C——y, the Lord Bishop of S——m, the Lord Bishops of L——n, C——le, E—y, W——r, and all the other Protest— B—ps, to deliver the Church from Danger: that the Bill be brought in by the Ex——r, and the Execution of it intrusted to D——ee, P——ase, and S——'s Mobs.

6. Another to impeach a General for High Treason, and to take away his Life for obtaining so many Victories over the Pretender's Great Patron tron—to be brought in alſo by the Ex———r, who ſhall likewiſe have the Honour to ſollicite it, in the name of all the ſwearing and nonſwearing Jacobites, under the Trophies that hang in W··—r Hall.

6. Another to make a ſpeedy and diſhonourable Peace upon the French King's own Propoſals, to be brought in by the Ex———r.

7. A Bill of Attainder againſt the late M———y for ſupporting the Intereſt of the Revolution, for concurring to cenſure thoſe who blacken'd it, for ſtanding by her Majeſty's Parliamentary Title, for aſſerting the like in the Houſe of Hanover againſt the new Hereditary Right-Men, for being ſo ſucceſsful by their Adminiſtration, as to raiſe the Glory of Great Britain higher than ever, and to humble the Pride of France ſo far, as to make that Tyrant beg Peace; but eſpecially for Schiſm and Hereſy againſt High Church, in hindering them by the Act of Toleration to ruin Diſſenters, and from ſending the Low-Church to keep Company with the Devil and his Angels, in the Lake that burns with Fire and Brimſtone, as Falſe Brethren: The Bill to be pen'd by the Ex———r, and brought in by thoſe that would ſet the Mitre above the Crown.

8. Reſolv'd that thoſe who aſſert a Divine Indefeaſible Hereditary Right, in oppoſition to the Parliamentary Title, and who boldly ſay her Majeſty ought to be damn'd for reſiſting the late King James, are her Majeſty's moſt loyal, juſt, grateful and faithful Subjects and Servants; and that a Bill be brought in accordingly by ſome of the outed Scotch Biſhops or Clergy, to be tack'd to a Toleration for thoſe in Scotland who refuſe to pray for her Majeſty or ſwear to her, but pray openly for the pretended King James the Eighth, with a Clauſe to be added by Greenſhields, for making the outed Nonjuring Biſhops in Scotland a part of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and impowering ſuch as are ordain'd by them contrary to Law, and ſworn to the Pretender, to ſet up Conventicles in Edinburg, becauſe thoſe Biſhops had ſo great a Tenderneſs for her Majeſty, as to pray, in their Addreſs in the London Gazette, Numb. 2398. Novemb. 12. 1688. That the late King James might have her Neck, and thoſe of the Prince and Princeſs of Orange.

9. Reſolv'd, That to adviſe the chuſing of Revolution-Men for Parliament, or the turning out ſuch M———s as were againſt the Abdication, gave Paſſes to Plotters, imploy'd ſuch Meſ——rs as ſuffer'd Aſſaſſins to eſcape, and were againſt attainting Aſſaſſinators and Invaders, was High Treaſon againſt the St. G———ns Family.

10. Reſolv'd, That there's no Coronation-Oath, Magna Charta, Declaration of Rights, which can limit the Prerogative, and that the Power of the Prince is immediately from God; ſo that they cannot be turn'd out for Tyranny, Popery, or reſiſted on any pretence whatever; and that all Acts of Parliament, or Declarations of Right to the contrary, are ipſo facto null and void; and that the Adminiſtration be ſolely in the Sa———te Mob, who have a Right to rebel againſt Q——— and P———t, and to turn out and put in ſuch M—ers, and to diſſolve and chuſe ſuch P——ts as they pleaſe.

11. Order'd that a Bill be brought in, to give the Prerogative of the Sovereign of Great Britain the ſame Extent as that of the Grand Seignior and the French King; and that they have a Right to Obedience without Reſerve, to Loyalty without Limitation, and to diſpoſe of the Lives, Liberties and Eſtates of their Subjects as they pleaſe; that this be the conſtant Doctrine from the P— on the 30th of January: and that this Bo— brought in by the bright Ornament of the Cl—

13. That when a Motion is made, and the Q— tion put, that when a Tory is detected of m— feſt Violence and Mobs, and has hir'd Men threaten to murder his Competitors, that there be a new Election; it ſhall paſs in the Negative.

14. A Bill order'd to be brought in, th— ſhall be lawful for T——s, and them onl— drink the Electors drunk, and to purchaſe t— Votes with Chaldrons of Coals and Ring— Bells; and that they have an undoubted Righ— chuſe Friends of Aſ——ns and Plo——rs t— Al———n, and to have thoſe who drank P———r's Health openly in the Streets to Members of the L———cy, to be drawn up— D—r W——n.

15. Reſolv'd, that for a King or Queen of Realm to deny any thing to H——Hi——rs, manifeſtly againſt their Title and Intereſt, to the endangering the breach of the C—— is Hereſy and Schiſm, contrary to the Doctrin— S———l, and makes the Prince and his Co— liable to a double Load of Damnation.

Countrym. I am very well ſatisfy'd, Maſter, many of the Examiner's Admirers would be— ſuch things, if they durſt offer them within Leſley and the Author of King William's Ex— rant Grants did without doors. The latter the Impudence, I remember, to dedicate Scheme to the Q——n and the then H— C——ns, wherein he laid down a Plan for ſe— aſide the Hanover Succeſſion, and ſecuring wh— calls the Pretender's Right. Now if the E— miner can ſhew any ſuch Vouchers for his C— upon the W——s, as theſe are for ours upon— of his T——s, he may deſerve Credit; but then he muſt paſs for a Slanderer and Incend— and every body may ſee that his Aim is to a— us with falſe Alarms, that we may not pr— againſt thoſe real Dangers we are threaten'd w— according to the Letter from St. Germain, that of the Bavarian Miniſter from Verſailles.

Obſ. That's obvious enough, Roger; beſides Examiner condemns himſelf, for if the Whi— a ruin'd Party, as he has again and again in his Boaſts, and the late Miniſtry be hated God and Man, as he has handſomly worded all his Suggeſtions of Danger from a ruin'd Pa— and their hated Leaders, muſt be needleſs by own Conceſſions: whereas 'tis evident, that French Faction among us have receiv'd a— Life, and their Patron boaſts that he is now beginning the War, when the Examiner and Friends are for bringing it to an end: So there was never a Party in the World worſe— with an Advocate; for he contradicts himſe— every Paper he writes, and is ſo full of Inco— tences, as every body ſees thro them, but— declare for Unlimited Paſſive-Obedience, and feaſible Hereditary Right in one Line, and vigorous withſtanding of Popery and Arbitrary P— and adhering to the Hanover Succeſſion, in to—

Numb. 4802

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 27. to Tuesday January 30. 1710.

St. James's, January 26.

THIS Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, as Preſident of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, accompanied by the Prolocutor of the Lower Houſe, and a Committee of both Houſes.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Preſident of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, and of the Biſhops and Clergy of the ſame Province in Convocation aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

We your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation aſſembled, having receiv'd your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Letter by the Hands of the Lord Dartmouth, hold our ſelves bound in Duty and Gratitude to return your moſt humble Acknowledgments for the ſame, and for the Pious Zeal and Care your Majeſty is pleas'd to expreſs thereby, for the Honour of Religion in general, and particularly for the Doctrine, Diſcipline and Worſhip of the Church of England.

We moſt humbly crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that according to the Truſt and Confidence your Majeſty has in us, we will apply our ſelves ſeriouſly to deliberate upon whatſoever ſhall appear to us neceſſary, or convenient for the Honour and Service of Almighty God, the Good and Quiet of the Church, and the Government thereof as by Law Eſtabliſh'd. And ſo, with all Reſpect and Duty, receive whatſoever ſhall be ſent to us from your Majeſty in purſuance of your Gracious Intentions in the ſaid Licence; and will chearfully and conſtantly the Fidelity and Allegiance, which we owe and bear to your Majeſty, whom we pray God to bleſs long and Happily to Reign over us.

Her Majeſty was pleas'd to make the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I receive this Addreſs from both Houſes of Convocation very kindly.

For my Part, and expect that you will lay aſide every thing which may hinder the good Effect of my Advice, and apply your ſelves heartily to the Conſideration of Matters which tend to the Honour of Religion, and the Welfare of my Subjects.

Whitehall, January 26. This Evening Monſieur Fortſner, Envoy from the Duke of Holſtein, had his firſt private Audience of Her Majeſty, in which he was introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. St. John, one of Her Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Mr. Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Hamburgh, January 30. N. S. The Meetings of the Commiſſioners for adjuſting the Affairs of this Town, are continu'd; tho' the freſh Diſputes that have been raiſed concerning the Title of Excellency, which the Count de Schonborn, the Imperial Commiſſioner, poſitively inſiſts upon from the other Miniſters, made us apprehend that there would be an Interruption of that Aſſembly. The Count has deliver'd in a Proteſtation and Reſervation upon his Pretenſions alone to that Title, which was never refus'd him by way of Complaiſance; but ſince he would eſtabliſh it by an abſolute Claim of Right, the Miniſters from the King of Pruſſia and Elector of Hanover, have, by Order of their Maſters, declin'd complying with that Demand, and have given in their Reaſons to be entred in the Protocoll. In the mean time Mr. Wich, her Britannick Majeſty's Envoy, endeavours very earneſtly to find out ſome Expedient for the removing this Difficulty, and eaſing the Town of that great Expence with which it is at preſent encumber'd, thro' the many Delays in this Negotiation. The Burghers met the 22d Inſtant, in order to come to a final Reſolution, in relation to the Propoſal of encreaſing the Number of their own Troops, and augmenting the Garriſon of this Place to three thouſand Men, whereas it conſiſted heretofore of no more than two thouſand. This Propoſition has at laſt been rejected, upon a Suggeſtion that it will be impoſſible for them to raiſe Contributions ſufficient for their Subſiſtence. The Swedes give out, that the Janiſaries had receiv'd Orders to March from Conſtantinople the 1ſt Inſtant; and that the King of Sweden deſigned to be preſent at the intended Siege of Caminieck. According to theſe Reports, the Troops under the Command of General Craſſau in Pomerania are to be join'd by the Swediſh Forces in the Dutchy of Bremen; and the Swedes flatter themſelves that the Emperor will ſuffer the Regiments they have been raiſing in the Dutchy of Deux-Ponts to March into Pomerania. The Swediſh Colonel Ehſenſhild is come hither from Stockholm, being charg'd with Letters for the King his Maſter. He reports, that the Plague is much abated at Stockholm; but we hear it ſpreads it ſelf all over the Country; inſomuch, that it is got among ſome Regiments in Schonen, and the Troops that were aſſembled in Finland are diſpers'd on that Account. The King of Poland continues at Leipſick, but it is thought he will be preſent at an Hunting Match near Wermsſtorff, and have an Interview with the King of Pruſſia.

Bruſſels, February 2. N. S. Letters from Madrid of the 12th paſt bring an Account, that the Duke of Anjou continued with his Court at Saragoſſa, and that he had canton'd part of his Forces in the adjacent Villages. 'Tis confirm'd from thence, that General Staremberg was arriv'd with his Army at Balaguer, which Poſt he ſupplied with all manner of Neceſſaries, and then continu'd his March

[illegible] and that the Muſcovites having Intelligence of it march'd

1200 Priſoners, and made the reſt betake themſelves to Flight.

Letters from Bruſſels of the 7th of February ſay, they had Advice from Paris of the 4th that the Marſhal de Boufflers was dead.

Baron Schmetau Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the King of Pruſſia died the 5th of February at the Hague, where he had reſided in that Quality about 19 Years. He was a Gentleman of great Ability and Worth, and had Serv'd four Princes, viz. Charles Lewis Elector Palatine firſt as Secretary, and afterwards as Miniſter of State, the Succeeding Elector Charles, Frederick William Elector of Brandenburgh as Counſellor of State, and his Son the King of Pruſſia. By which Princes he was ſent on divers Embaſſies, into Germany, England, France, and Holland.
